

TRIO Student Support Services (SSS) is a federally funded TRIO grant through the U.S. Department of Education that assists students in overcoming the barriers to earning a college degree. TRIO SSS is a voluntary program designed to serve students at WVU Tech who meet at least ONE of the following requirements: income eligible as determined by federal government guidelines, first-generation college student (neither parent/guardian has graduated from a four-year institution) and/or a documented sensory, psychological, learning or physical disability. The WVU Tech TRIO SSS program can serve only 215 students annually, so space is limited. All program services are FREE for program participants. It is strongly suggested that applicants submit their application as soon as it is completed.

Program services include but are not limited to:

- Summer Bridge program in August to help with the transition to college
- Academic, Career, Financial Aid and Graduate School Advising
- Computer Lab with FREE unlimited academic printing
- Cultural enrichment activities (trips, theatre, concerts, etc.)
- Graduate School Visits
- Professional math tutoring, peer tutoring and 24/7 online tutoring
- Scholarship Opportunities
- Student Employment Opportunities
- Sessions covering a wide array of topics such as study skills, financial aid, test anxiety, time management, etc.
